Hear from our Experts during a Guidewire Business Track Session on Tuesday, October 16th

Critical management systems we use to adjudicate claims should be integrated in a manner that provides the right data to the right people at the right time. These integrations have historically been difficult to implement and somewhat painful to support and maintain. However, well-built integrations can significantly improve the function of core business systems and, by extension, improve the outcome of claims handling. Bill Morgan, Guidewire and Rebecca Morgan, Mitchell will present Bringing It All Together with Effective Workers' Compensation and Auto Integrations on Tuesday, October 16th at 11:15am. In this session, they will discuss some best practices for systems integrations—and the benefits that can be achieved by improving those integrations. Click here to read an article from Rebecca and Bill for a preview of the presentation.
