Steve Laudermilch

Executive Vice President & General Manager

Steve Laudermilch is executive vice president and general manager of Enlyte's Casualty Solutions Group (CSG). In this role, Laudermilch guides the strategy and business operations of Enlyte's cutting-edge team and capabilities. CSG develops and delivers claims technology, analytics and workflow solutions for the auto casualty and workers' compensation markets, while helping restore the lives of injured drivers and employees.

With 25 years of senior leadership in P&C claims, Laudermilch previously served as U.S. Chief Claims Officer with Argo Group, a major underwriter of specialty insurance products in the property and casualty market. In this role, he led the technical claims teams, claims operations and shared services. Laudermilch's prior positions also include Executive Vice President, Claims Optimization at Chubb, and Senior Manager at Deloitte Consulting where he led claims predictive modeling and analytics engagements.

Laudermilch holds an MBA from Saint Joseph's University, Philadelphia, and a BA in Economics from Ursinus College, Collegeville, PA.
